EDISON— Legal Services of New Jersey (LSNJ) is offering a free training session focusing on issues involving foreclosure defense Wednesday May 22 from 1:45 to 4:40 p.m. at the offices of LSNJ in Edison.

Three N.J. Continuing Legal Education credits are available for those attending.

The training is open to attorneys who agree to accept the referral of at least one pro bono case from Legal Services in the year following the training. Coffee, beverages, will be served. Space for the training session is limited and pre-registration is required. Those interested in attending should email probono@lsnj.org to learn how to register.

The session will cover such topics as motions to vacate, orders to show cause, motions for final judgments, bad faith loan modifications, and bankruptcy options, among various other issues.

LSNJ's pro bono program provides ongoing support and technical assistance as well as malpractice insurance, and all hours dedicated to pro bono cases for Legal Services are eligible for the Madden exemption.
